

Apache DIY Home Repair Program

Data based on 28 participants who completed surveys both before and after participating in Home DIY workshops December 2019-January 2020.

SPIRITUAL

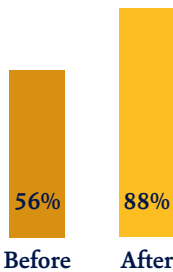

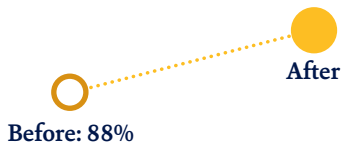

81%

of workshop participants indicated that their relationship with God was strengthened through these workshops

100%

of participants view their house as a gift from God

People who thought that it was very important to be able to fix their own home

PHYSICAL

69%

of participants learned a new home repair skill at a workshop

% of people who said they could not at all fix their home

% of people who said their housing repair needs were not being met

RELATIONAL

81%

of participants indicated that the workshops gave them an opportunity to build relationships with Christians in the community

