

Malawi Disability Program

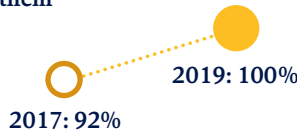

Data based on 13 children who participated in an observational assessment in 2017 and 2019.

SPIRITUAL

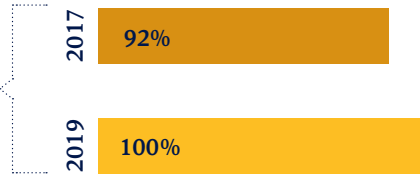

Participants who have been baptized

Participants who understand that Jesus loves them*

Participants who enjoy listening to stories about Jesus*

*According to their caregivers

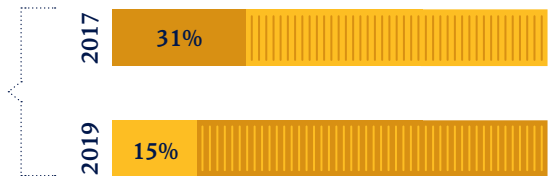

SOCIAL INTERACTION

Participants improved in their ability to respond to others, speak words, and communicate effectively.

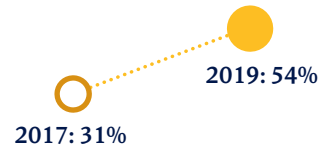

Participants who responded "a lot" by making noises, moving, or smiling when spoken to:

Participants who could not speak

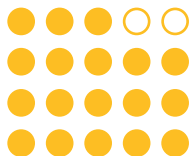

Participants who had good control in communicating effectively at home and outside of their home:

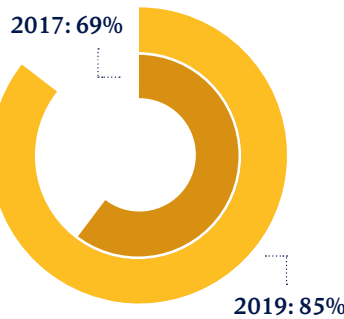

QUALITY OF LIFE

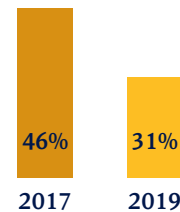

85% of participants in 2019 could sit up when supported with cushions

2017: 46%

Participants could sit completely unaided

Participants who could not walk