

Indonesia Health Education

Based on 30 women who participated in reproductive health workshops. Data was collected through retrospective surveys in August 2021.

SPIRITUAL

100% agreed that God is important in everyday life

100%

agreed with the following statements:

I show thankfulness to God by maintaining a healthy body.

When I have a healthy body I can serve those around me better.

RELATIONAL

94% of participants have shared what they learned with other women.

88%

of participants felt comfortable coming to church for the workshop.

100%

of participants feel like the local church cares about them.

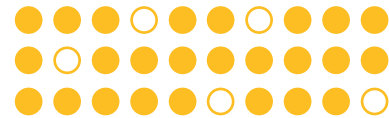

PHYSICAL

100%

of participants indicated they feel more comfortable after receiving menstrual health products through Kingdom Workers.

82%

of participants had not received any education about their reproductive system prior to the education they received from Kingdom Workers.

Women who indicated their menstruation stops them from doing everyday activities.

18%

Before

5%

After

92% of participants learned something new at the health education workshops.

65%

of participants consulted a medical professional when they had a health concern.

Before: 52%

73% of participants made a change in their life because of something they learned at the workshop.

